

I Ching Lecture & Workshop

with Gary Foster & Autumn Hall

Saturday, November 11, 2017, 10:15 am - 1:00 pm

Location: Penrose Library, 20 N. Cascade, Colorado Springs

The ancient Chinese Oracle is a tool to trace the patterns of change in one's own life and a guide for one's personal psychic understanding. The I Ching has always been a means to gain greater perspective amid the ever-changing, often tumultuous, landscape of our existence in the world. We will discover together a little of the origins of this highly refined system of thought; the distilled wisdom of over 4,000 years of Chinese civilization from early shaman, healers, and diviners of ancient China to latter-day Taoist and Neo-Confucian scholars. Learn how to use the I Ching. Understand how to build one of 64 hexagrams and interpret the changes of the lines within, find the underlying pattern of change in the moment, and trace the movement of Yin and Yang in your life.

Gary Foster, MA-COMM, is a graduate of the Defense Language Institute (DLI) in Monterey, California where he studied Chinese Mandarin. He later received his undergraduate degree in Asian Studies/Chinese and a Master's degree in Communications. Gary worked for 33 years as a Chinese Linguist/Cryptanalyst and Intelligence Analyst/Consultant for the Department of Defense.

He has travelled widely in Asia and brings over 40 years of I Ching practice and study to bear on his understanding of Asian culture and thought.

Autumn Hall is also an honor graduate of DLI and served for 4 years as a Chinese linguist for the DOD. She is an internationally recognized Asian Short Form poet and is currently the Tanka Prose editor for Ribbons, the official print journal of the Tanka Society of America. She and Gary have partnered for the last 10 years in furthering their mutual understanding of the I Ching.
